

Vivotek IP Surveillance System

Network Camera IP2111/2121

The network camera IP2111/21 combines powerful video server and high quality image sensor for easy migration to digital video surveillance and monitoring. Either Ethernet or modem can be used to transmit live video anywhere you want. Real time performance and high quality video are enjoyed at your finger without any compromise. With external device support and motion detection, Vivotek network cameras can easily build the optimal security applications.

Features

- Easy web access via popular browsers
- Familiar wizard assistance
- Built-in CCD and extension for auto iris lens
- Real-time performance with options of size and quality
- Built-in motion detection
- WAN support via external modem
- Remote PT scanner control
- Extension for sensor and alarm
- Development kit for system integrators

